Gerd Leonhard is a well-known Futurist and Author of five books, a highly influential Keynote Speaker, Think-Tank Leader & Advisor, and the Founder of GreenFuturist.com. Gerd also serves as Visiting Professor at the Fundação Dom Cabral (São Paulo, Brazil). He is well-known as the co-author of the influential book 'The Future of Music' (Berklee Press, 2005), and as the author of 'The End of Control' (2007), 'Music 2.0' (2008), 'Friction is Fiction' (2009, Lulu Publishing), and 'The Future of Content' (Kindle-only, 2011). His new book "From Ego to Eco" will be released in 2012.

Gerd's background is in music and the music business; in 1985 he won Berklee College's 'Quincy Jones Award' and subsequently spent 10 years working as a professional guitar player, composer and producer. He then caught the Internet bug and became a digital media entrepreneur, serving as CEO with several Internet startups, based in San Francisco for 7 years. In 2002, Gerd returned to Europe and started his career as Futurist, Keynote Speaker and Strategic Advisor.

He now travels around the globe and speaks at major conferences and events, company retreats, seminars and in-house trainings on the Future of Business, Sustainability, Environmental Policy and Climate Change, Media, Content and Entertainment, Technology, Marketing, Advertising & Branding, Telecommunications etc. Since late 2011, Gerd has been widening the scope of his work to include some of the most pressing 'green' issues such as sustainability and 'sustainable capitalism', renewable energy, climate change and global warming.
